

LOVE FOR ALLAH (S.W.T.)

WITH THE NAME OF ALLAH, MOST GRACIOUS, MOST MERCIFUL.

Listen to Allah (S.W.T.) in Sura Al-i-Imran (ch.3): verse 31:-

“Say: ‘If you do love Allah, follow me; Allah will love you and forgive you your sins: for Allah is oft-forgiving, most merciful.”

To prove our love for Allah (S.W.T.) we have to follow the life-style of our beloved Nabie (S.A.W.).

Remember, he followed Allah (S.W.T.)’s guidance in the Holy Quraan. Our Rabb will then be pleased with us and forgive our sins.

Why should we learn to love Allah (S.W.T.)?

When we seriously look at the many good things and favours provided by our Rabb, we are forced to give thanks to Him.

There are so many of these good things that we take for granted that along the years of our life on earth we forget to offer gratitude to Him. This kind of behaviour can lead us away from the right path!

The air that we breathe, the water that we drink, the food that we eat, the beautiful world in which we live, the good and right guidance that we receive, the parents whom we have, along with so many other favours, must not be overlooked.

Remember, Allah (S.W.T.) loves us and in return we must learn to love and thank Him!

Worksheet

1) How should we prove our love for Allah (S.W.T.)?

---

2) Who has given us the many good things in life?

---