

VAIN TALK

WITH THE NAME OF ALLAH, MOST GRACIOUS, MOST MERCIFUL.

Allah (S.W.T.) commands us not to be in the company of vain talkers.

In Sura al-An'am (ch. 6): verse 68 we are told:-

“When you see men engaged in vain discourse about Our signs, turn away from them unless they turn to a different theme. If Satan ever makes you forget, then after recollection, you should not sit in the company of those who do wrong.”

We should avoid gossiping.

When we meet family members and friends, all useless discussions should be avoided.

Would it not be better to speak of Allah (S.W.T.), His Nabie (S.A.W.) and His Deen?

Remember, not one of Allah (S.W.T.)'s Nabies and Rasools ever took part in vain discussions.

Therefore, we must follow their great way of life, if we want our Rabb to be pleased with us!

Worksheet

1) Did the Nabies and the Rasools of Allah (S.W.T.) ever busy themselves with vain talk?

2) Does our Rabb like it when we gossip?
