

TRADE

WITH THE NAME OF ALLAH, MOST GRACIOUS, MOST MERCIFUL

The buying and selling of goods is known as trade.
Many countries produce more goods or food than their people can use.
Imports are goods that a country buys from another country.
Exports are goods that a country sells to another country.
In Islam the pursuit and promotion of the international trade is supported.
Allah (S.W.T) says:

'...and Allah has permitted trade...'
(Sura 2 verse 275)

The law of commercial morality is also laid down in the Holy Qur'an:

*'...Let there be amongst you traffic and trade
By mutual goodwill...'*
(Sura 4 verse 29)

Worksheet

1. What is meant by trade?

2. What are imports?

3. What is the rule with regard to 'traffic and trade'?
